When the R.C. can sanction leave upto two months to Dy. Asst. Commrs. & Permanent Asst. Commrs. it seems necessary that P.L. for even a few days in regard to Dy. Asst. Commrs. shd. come to Govt. for sanction. The R.C. can very well deal with these also himself & sanction leave upto two months.

Government Order No. Fl. 1305-54—G. F. 70-18-1, dated the 3rd September 1918, delegating to certain Heads of Departments, the power to grant to Gazetted Officers of their department, privilege leave up to a period of one month, provided that no substitute is required.

2. Government Order No. Fl. 4382-442—G. F. 209-25-1, dated the 5th February 1926, directing that Heads of Departments who are authorised to sanction privilege leave up to one month to Gazetted Officers working under them, be empowered to make in-charge arrangements in such vacancies and sanction the charge allowances admissible under Article 91 of the Mysore Service Regulations.

ORDER No. FL. 5920-5970—G. F. 184-46-2, DATED BANGALORE, THE 7TH FEBRUARY 1947.

According to Art. 408 of the Mysore Service Regulations, the Heads of Departments are not authorised to grant furlough to Gazetted Staff and can sanction only privilege leave up to one month to Gazetted Officers and make in-charge arrangements during such vacancies.

2. With a view to avoid unnecessary correspondence and delay in sanctioning leave and making in-charge arrangements, Government consider that it is necessary to delegate further powers to the Heads of Departments in this respect and they accordingly direct that Heads of Departments specified in Appendix 'O' of the Mysore Service Regulations be permitted to sanction privilege leave and furlough either by itself or combined with other leave to Gazetted Officers, provided the total period does not exceed two months and only in-charge arrangements are made in the consequential vacancy. They are also authorised to sanction the charge allowance admissible under the Mysore Service Regulations in such cases.

3. Necessary amendment to the Mysore Service Regulations will issue separately.
